Notes:

1. Please refer to the Expedited Manuscript Service (EMS) guidelines located on <http://www.oceansidepubl.com> The Expedited Review service is an independent service offering prompt peer review for time-sensitive material.
2. All invoices must be paid within 24 hours. Upon receipt of payment, the manuscript files will be tagged as an Expedited Manuscript and treated as such. OceanSide accepts Visa, MasterCard and American Express payments. For immediate processing, simply return this completed order form with your credit card information and signature. Your card will be charged $750.00
3. The purposes of this service are to provide the author with an initial editorial decision within 14 days of this agreement and to expedite the publication of accepted manuscripts. Accepted EMS manuscripts are e-published, ahead of print, on the journal's Ingenta hosted website within 7-10 days of final corrections to the author's page proofs and are print published in the very next journal issue going to press.
4. Please note that designation of a paper as 'EMS' does not alter the journal's scientific/medical standard for peer review acceptance; rather only the timing of peer review and publication are intended to be influenced. In all circumstances, the Proceedings will adhere to the ethical standards of the peer review process, as stated in the full instructions to authors. If a manuscript, submitted under this option, is rejected for publication by the editor, no amount of the $750 is refundable.
